

CORNELL NUTRITION CONFERENCE PRE-CONFERENCE SYMPOSIUM

Leading the Way in Responsible and Sustainable Food Production

Tuesday, Oct. 16, 2018

1–5:30 PM

DoubleTree by
Hilton Hotel Syracuse

1:00 PM INTRODUCTIONS

1:10 PM ALIGNED SUPPLY CHAINS: DELIVERING FOOD SAFETY, CUSTOMER SATISFACTION AND CONSISTENT PROFITABILITY

Approaches our company has taken to help make this happen.
Steve Sands, Performance Food Group

1:50 PM SALMONELLA IN DAIRY CATTLE AND PRE-HARVEST INTERVENTIONS DESIGNED TO ENHANCE FOOD SAFETY

Evaluating pre-harvest interventions in an effort to improve food safety.

Dr. Tom Edrington, Diamond V

2:40 PM ANTIMICROBIAL RESISTANCE: WHY BEATING THE BUGS IS FUTILE

Why it matters, what causes it and control measures through antimicrobial stewardship.

Dr. Guy Loneragan, Texas Tech University

3:15 PM BREAK

3:45 PM NUTRITION 2.0: THE INCREASINGLY COMPLEX WORLD OF HOW NUTRIENTS WORK

Modulating the gut microbiome, cellular signals, metabolic hormones and epigenetic mechanisms: How new understandings should influence nutrition research moving forward.

Dr. Barry Bradford, Kansas State University

4:35 PM APPROACHES TO MITIGATING ON-FARM PATHOGEN BURDENS

Conventional and nutritional interventions to improve herd health, public health and animal performance.

Dr. Bill Stone, Diamond V

5:10 PM MEETING WRAP-UP